John Jacobs' Golf Schools & Academies Announces Partnership With Whittaker Woods Golf Club in New Buffalo, Michigan

( Scottsdale, AZ) - John Jacobs Golf Schools, the world leader in golf instruction – proudly announces its new partnership with Whittaker Woods Golf Club in New Buffalo, Michigan.

Founded in 1976 by two of golf's most decorated teachers, Shelby Futch, who is still President and CEO, and Hall of Fame Player & Teacher John Jacobs, the John Jacobs' Golf Schools have graduated more than 500,000 students at more than 100 locations across the United States and around the world.

John Jacobs' Golf Schools at Whittaker Woods offers two and three day schools that cover every facet of the game from full-swing to short-game technique to trouble shots, uneven lies and course management. The new John Jacobs' Golf Academy offers private and semi-private lessons with the same time-honored tradition of teaching excellence through a variety of programs that can be specifically customized to meet every student's needs. Both the Schools and Academy programs are open to golfers of all abilities in search of premier game improvement instruction.

“Whittaker Woods is a great addition to our collection of locations, especially being in the Midwest and part of the Chicago area golf scene, only a short 90 miles from downtown, “ says Cliff Lawson, Vice President & Director of Instruction. “We are looking forward to working with the many avid golfers in the Midwest, including Illinois, Michigan and Indiana, that are looking for a great golf playing experience and world class instruction.”

Whittaker Woods Golf Club is located in Harbor Country of Southwest Michigan, just north of the Indiana border, only ninety miles from downtown Chicago, and within a three hour drive of Indianapolis, IN and Detroit, MI. Completed in 1996, Whittaker Woods is part of a larger community of home sites and town-homes overlooking the golf course with spectacular views of the surrounding woods and wetlands.

Whittaker Woods offers an 18-hole championship course that was designed by the late Ken Killian, legendary architect of Kemper Lakes outside Chicago. It offers four sets of tees, from the formidable challenge of 7000 yards from the back tees, yet plays under 5000 yards from the front tees, ensuring enjoyment for golfers of all skill levels.
